- 4. Members of the Supervisory Board are appointed for a joint, three-year term of office. The term of office shall be calculated in full financial years. The mandate of a Supervisory Board member expires upon the holding of the General Meeting approving the financial statement of the Company for the last full financial year of holding the function. -----
- 5. If the mandate of a Supervisory Board member expires as a result of his/her resignation or death, the other Supervisory Board members may resolve to appoint a new member to fill-in the vacancy. Such a new member will perform his/her duties until a new Supervisory Board member is elected by the General Meeting, or as described in § 14 Section 2-3.-----
- 6. Supervisory Board members can be re-appointed for subsequent terms of office. Appointment may be made no earlier than one year before the expiration of the current term of a member of the Supervisory Board.-----

- 1. If the right vested in Przemysław Gacek or Frascati Investments (or their respective legal successors under universal title), respectively, referred to in § 14 Section 2 a) and b) has expired – the Chairman of the Supervisory Board shall be elected in a secret ballot by the General Meeting.-----
- 2. Meetings of the Supervisory Board are chaired by the Chairman of the Supervisory Board or, in situation when the Chairman of the Supervisory Board cannot perform his/her duties a person authorized by him/her acts as Chairman's substitute or if such person is not appointed by the oldest member of the Supervisory Board. -----

3. The first meeting of the Supervisory Board of each term is convened by the Management Board not later than within 3 (three) months of election of the Supervisory Board. The agenda of the first meeting shall include item regarding the constitution of the Supervisory Board. If the right vested in Przemysław Gacek or Frascati Investments (or their respective legal successors under universal title), respectively, referred to in § 14 Section 2 a) and b) has expired – it will also include the election of the Chairman of the Supervisory Board. -----

1. The Chairman of the Supervisory Board or, in the circumstances specified in the Articles of Association, a person appointed by the Chairman of the Supervisory Board, convenes Supervisory Board meetings on its own initiative or upon request of the Management Board or a Supervisory Board member. The Chairman or a person appointed by the Chairman must convene the meeting within two (2) weeks of submission of the relevant motion with the agenda in line with the request. In case of ineffective expiration of such deadline, the person who submitted the motion will be authorized to convene the Supervisory Board meeting. -----
2. Supervisory Board meetings are held as-needed, but at least once in a calendar quarter. -----
3. Management Board members and other persons invited by the Chairman of the Supervisory Board or, in his absence, by a person appointed by the Chairman of the Supervisory Board, may participate in Supervisory Board meetings, unless the agenda of the meeting includes matters directly concerning the Management Board or its members, in particular their dismissal, liability or remuneration. -----
4. Supervisory Board meetings are convened by sending invitations by registered mail at least 14 (fourteen) days before the scheduled date of the meeting. Supervisory Board meeting may also be convened by sending invitations by electronic mail at least seven (7) days before the scheduled date of the meeting. -----
5. An invitation to a Supervisory Board meeting should specify its place, date, hour and agenda, as well as the way of use of electronic means of communication during the meeting. During the meeting, the Supervisory Board may also adopt resolutions on matters not included in the proposed agenda, if none of the members of the Supervisory Board participating in the meeting objects to it. -----
6. Supervisory Board can be held without formal convening if all Supervisory Board members agree to hold the meeting in such way and do not object to the inclusion of individual items on the agenda. -----
7. In urgent matters the Chairman of the Supervisory Board or a person appointed by the Chairman, may command a different manner and terms for inviting Supervisory Board members to a meeting, in particular different than the terms set out in Section 4 above. -----
8. Supervisory Board resolutions are recorded in the form of minutes. -----
9. Supervisory Board meetings can be attended with the use of electronic means of communication.

1. The Supervisory Board adopts its resolutions by a simple majority of votes, in the presence of at least one-half of the Supervisory Board members, unless mandatory provisions of law stipulate more strict requirements for adopting such resolutions. -----
2. In the event of a tied vote, the Chairman of the Supervisory Board has the casting vote. -----
3. For the resolutions adopted at the meeting of the Supervisory Board to be valid, it is required that all the members of the Supervisory Board are invited to the meeting. -----
4. Resolutions of the Supervisory Board may be adopted in writing or with the use of electronic means of communication, provided that a resolution adopted in the above manner shall be valid only if all the members of the Supervisory Board have been notified of the content of the draft resolution and at least a half of the Supervisory Board members took part in adopting the resolution. -----
5. Members of the Supervisory Board may participate in the adoption of resolutions of the Supervisory Board by voting in writing and delivering such vote through the intermediation of another member of the Supervisory Board. Votes may not be cast in writing with respect to any matters that have been added to the agenda during the Supervisory Board meeting. -----
6. A Supervisory Board Member shall inform the Supervisory Board of any existing or threatened conflict of interests and shall not take part in the voting on a resolution on a matter in respect of which such conflict may arise with that Supervisory Board member. A Supervisory Board member may not accept any benefits, which may affect his/her impartiality and objectivity when making decisions or adversely impact the assessment of independence of his/her opinions and judgments. -----

The Supervisory Board may adopt its own by-laws that shall specify in detail the manner of its operation.

§ 19

1. Supervisory Board members take part in Supervisory Board meetings and perform their duties personally, subject to § 17 Section 5 of the Articles of Association. -----
2. Supervisory Board members are entitled to the remuneration specified by the General Meeting. -
3. The Supervisory Board performs its duties collectively, although it may delegate its members to perform certain supervisory activities individually. -----

1. The Supervisory Board exercises ongoing supervision over the affairs of the Company with respect to all areas of its operations. -----
2. In order to fulfil its obligations, the Supervisory Board may examine any Company documents, request the Management Board and Company employees to prepare or provide information, documents, reports and submit explanations regarding the Company, subsidiaries and affiliates, audit all Company books and documents and check the Company's inventory. The Management Board may not limit the Supervisory Board members' access to the information, documents, reports or explanations referred to in the preceding sentence. The Company is required to provide the Supervisory Board with the books and documents it may request and with reports and explanations promptly following the receipt of request, but in no event later than within two weeks from the day on which relevant request was made to the body or obliged person, unless another time limit was provided in the request. -----

3. The Supervisory Board may adopt a resolution on the examination, at the Company's expense, of specific matter related to the Company's activity or assets, as well as preparation of certain analyses and opinions by Supervisory Board's advisor. The Supervisory Board's advisor shall not be an entity related to the Company or any member of the Supervisory Board. Before selecting the advisor, the Supervisory Board should obtain proposals from at least two entities. When selecting the advisor, the Supervisory Board shall take into account the amount of the proposed remuneration, the previous experience of the advisor, the availability of qualified specialists and the ability to execute the assignment within the timeframe specified by the Supervisory Board. The Supervisory Board may establish additional criteria for the selection of the advisor. The maximum total remuneration of all advisors to the Supervisory Board in a given financial year shall not exceed PLN 50,000.00 (fifty thousand zlotys) net. -----
4. The powers of the Supervisory Board include in particular:-----
 - a) reviewing the Management Board's report on the Company's activities and the financial statements for each financial year in terms of their compliance with the Company's books and documents as well as the actual state of affairs; -----
 - b) evaluation of the Management Board's proposals concerning the distribution of profit or coverage of loss; -----

1. Independent Supervisory Board members: -----
 - a) At least 2 (two) Supervisory Board members should be the Independent Supervisory Board Members. -----
 - b) An Independent Supervisory Board Member shall deliver to the remaining Supervisory Board members and the Management Board a statement that he/she meets the independence criteria specified in the applicable provisions of law.-----
 - c) If only one or none of the Supervisory Board members meets the independence criteria set out in the applicable provisions of law, but the Supervisory Board has the minimum number of Supervisory Board members required by these Articles of Association, the Supervisory Board is authorized to act and exercise its rights and obligations, in particular to pass resolutions. The loss of the status of an Independent Supervisory Board Member by a member of the Supervisory Board shall not cause expiry of his/her mandate and shall not affect the ability of the Supervisory Board to exercise its powers as provided for in the Commercial Companies Code and the Articles of Association. -----

2. Supervisory Board committees:-----
 - a) When required the Supervisory Board sets up permanent or ad hoc committees functioning within the Supervisory Board to perform certain supervisory activities (Supervisory Board's committees). The members of a given Supervisory Board committee shall be appointed from among the Supervisory Board members. The composition, powers, duties, responsibilities and manner of operation of a given committee acting within the Supervisory Board are set forth by the relevant provisions of law, the Articles of Association and the Supervisory Board's by-laws. To the extent not regulated by the provisions of law, the Articles of Association or the Supervisory Board's by-laws, the composition, powers, duties, responsibilities and manner of operation of a given committee acting within the Supervisory Board are set forth in rules of that committee functioning within the Supervisory Board. ----
 - b) On the terms and for a period set forth by the provisions of the Act on Statutory Auditors or other applicable provisions of law, an Audit Committee operates within the Supervisory Board. The Chairman of the Audit Committee is appointed by the members of the Audit Committee. -----

C. MANAGEMENT BOARD

1. The Management Board manages the Company's affairs and represents the Company. Each member of the Management Board may conduct, without a prior resolution of the Management Board, matters which do not exceed the scope of ordinary activities of the Company. If, prior to the handling of a matter referred to in the preceding sentence, even one of the other members of the Management Board objects to the handling of a specific matter or if the matter exceeds the scope of ordinary activities of the Company, a prior resolution of the Management Board is required.
